(Jury resumes deliberations.)

(Proceedings held without jury at 12:18 p.m.)

THE COURT: Okay, folks. You can take a seat.

We received a note from the jury that reads that they have agreed upon a verdict as to all of the defendants, and in the meantime the Court will read the last two messages received from the jury -- actually that is the text of the message received at 11:15 a.m.

Just prior to that, the Court received a request for Exhibits 380, 402, 403, 412, 467, and 321 from the jury foreperson, who is Number 70.

The Court also released its ruling on the Rule 29 motions. Those will be accessible to counsel, and otherwise, I guess there's nothing to be done, but to have the jury come in and receive their verdicts.

16 I'm sure, but I have to say that you did amazing job. You

18 volume of information in a criminal case that I've had.
19 You kept it all straight obviously addressed each
20 individual as an individual, and you're verdicts were 21 perfectly consistent as contemplated by the verdicts forms
22 that were given to prepare. I think we could not have 23 asked anything more of you than what was received.

24 And on behalf of the community, and the parties to 25 this case, I want to express our sincere thanks for the

1 work -- the enormous amount of work that you vested. I
2 think it was last Tuesday that I read to you the
3 deliberations instructions over again, and you left the
4 courtroom that day, and since then it's nothing but work
5 for you, and conscientious work at that for you to arrive
6 at a conclusion with respect to each defendant.

7 Everyone associated with the case here is very
8 impressed with the benefit of the -- with the work that
9 you invested, with your willingness to continue talking
10 about the case until an agreement could be reached, and it
11 doesn't always happen, but again, on behalf of everybody
12 here, I want to tell you how grateful we are for the 13 effort that was undertaken here.

14 We will send you back to the jury room, and I will
15 be joining you in there in just a minute.

20 give sentencing dates. We'll have to furnish the 21 sentencing dates for you, which will be four months out
22 from today's date, but we'll have to give you a specific
23 date sometime later today I think.

24 So as amazing as the job that was performed by the 25 jurors was -- and I think it was an amazing efforts on

1 their part -- I want to commend counsel on this case, both
2 from the government's side as well as from the defense
3 side, for the professionalism and the work that was
4 evidenced during the course of the trial.

5 On the government side, having all of two weeks to 6 prepare for most of the participants in the trial other
7 than Julie Finocchiaro, it was incredible. You obviously 8 are very talented trial lawyers, and you were again, very 9 professional, and worked well with the defense lawyers to 10 ensure that everybody got a fair trial.

11 And for defense counsel as well, the same
12 professionalism was shown by each of you, and the case was 13 dealt with efficiently and in good conscience I think on 14 the part of everybody involved.

15 So the Court wants to express my gratitude for 16 your work on the case.

17 What remains is to set the sentencing dates.

18 Is there anything that I need to address before
19 doing that?

20 MR. WIGOD: Nothing from the government.

21 THE COURT: I'm content to have Mr. Fisher's
22 bond continued.

23 MR. BILKOVIC: Yes, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Then we'll see you in about four 25 months.
